in the urgency to respond to the challenges posed by diversity in contemporary societies the discussion of normative foundations is often overlooked this book takes that important first step and offers new ways of thinking about diversity its contribution to an ongoing dialogue in this field lies in the construction of a normative framework which endeavours to better understand the challenges of justice in diverse societies by applying this normative framework to specific and broader examples of injustices in the spheres of religion culture race ethnicity gender and nationality the book demonstrates how constitutional pluralist discourses can contribute both to new and legal responses to diversity the book will be of interest to legal professionals policy makers law students and scholars concerned with exploring diversity in the 21st century first published in 1999 this volume provides an overview of company laws in south east asia north east asia and the pacific the chapters adopt a standard format to allow for comparisons to be made as well as highlighting key features of company laws in each jurisdiction the contributors are experts in their fields and present practical and policy related insights the book also contains some useful overviews of company law themes in asia this volume brings the research spaces of intertextuality and empire criticism in new testament studies into conversation using postcolonial intertextuality to argue that romans presents a double voiced political theology of peace
